Report of Participation in National Voter's Day Rally

To create awareness among people about voting, Election department, Collector office, National Service Scheme arranged voters' awareness rally on occasion of Voters' Day on 25th Jan. 2024. There were 20 NSS Volunteers of our college enthusiastically participated in the rally. The rally was started from Collector Office, Kolhapur and concluded at Vivekanand College, Kolhapur. Volunteers raised slogans related to voting, voting right and thereby tried to create awareness among the people. All the participants swore an oath to keep trust on the democracy and strive for the independent, impartial and peaceful election and casting the vote irrespective of religion, community and language. Principal Dr. L. D. Kadam encouraged students to participate in the rally. The rally was led by NSS program officer Dr. G. M. Lawangare.

Outcomes
