

Rayat Shikshan Sanstha's
Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu College, Kolhapur

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY, PHILOSOPHY, POLITICAL SCIENCE
 AND
 CENTRE FOR GANDHIAN STUDIES, SHIVAJI UNIVERSITY, KOLHAPUR
JOINTLY ORGANISED
 ONE-DAY STATE LEVEL WORKSHOP
 ON

RELEVANCE OF MAHATMA GANDHI'S THOUGHTS

On the Occasion of 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, Political science, Psychology and Philosophy Department of Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu College, Kolhapur in collaboration with Gandhi Study Centre, Shivaji University, Kolhapur. Organized one Day State Level workshop on Thursday 14, March 2019 in the contemporary relevance of Mahatma Gandhi's thoughts. The program was inaugurated by the occupious hands of Prof. Dr. Bharati Patil, co-coordinator, Mahatma Gandhi Study Centre Shivaji University, Kolhapur. On this occasion, Shri Kishor Bedkihal, senior philosopher, Satara talkad about 'Mahatma Gandhi and religion' in inauguration session. Prin. Dr. C.J. Khilare was the president of the session. During second session, Prof. Dr. Shivajirao Patil, Chhatrapati Shivaji College, Satara addressed on 'Philosophy of Satyagraha and practice' Prof. Dr. R.P. Dethe was President of the second session. Third Session of the workshop, Prof. Dr. Sucheta surgihalli, Shahaji Law College, Kolhapur delivered lecture on 'Mahatma Gandhi and Environment.' Prof. Dr. Sindhu awale was the president of the session. After the workshop Group Discussion was organized in which most of the students asked the questions. This workshop introduced by Prof. Sayra Mulani, (coordinator) Philosophy Department and Dr. M.M. Bandare (co-coordinator) Political science Department introduced the guest resource person. Prof. M.M. Patil Psychology Department, thanks all the participant, teaching, non-teaching staff and students.

Outcome :

- Students would demonstrate values like Truth Non-Violence, satyagrah etc.
- Students would analyze the life and works of Mahatma Gandhi

No of Beneficiaries: 98

 Principal,
 R.C. Shahu College, Kolhapur.