

RAYAT SHIKSHAN SANSTHA'S
RAJARSHI CHHTRAPATI SHAHU COLLEGE, KOLHAPUR
DEPARTMENT OF BOTANY

Organized

International Endangered species Day

(2021-22)

Date: 21/5/2021

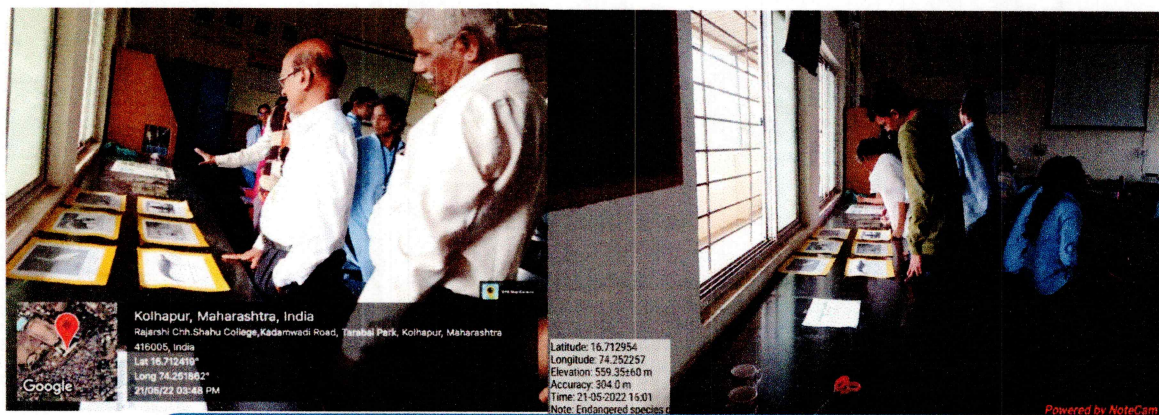

REPORT

Department of Botany, Rayat Shikshan Sanstha's Rajarshi Chhatrapati Shahu College, Kolhapur has organized celebration of International Endangered Species Day program at the Botany Department, RCSC, Kolhapur. Resource person invited for this program was Prof. Dr. V. V. Killedar, Vice Principal, Chhatrapati Shahu College, Kolhapur. Various types of pictures of endangered species were presented on cardsheet, wall paper and herbaria specimens. Total 45 students from college and Botany Department of RCSC, Kolhapur were present for this event. Dr. Rode has explained about importance of endangered plants along India, Dr. S. M. Gojare, Head Department of Botany introduced about guest and explained about importance of this day. Dr. S. B. Jugale proposed vote of thanks.

Outcomes:

1. Create awareness about endangered species
2. Identification and conservation of endangered species

Total Beneficiaries : 45

Principal and Students visiting Exhibition of endangered species

SMG
Head
Department of Botany
Rajarshi Chh. Shahu College, Kolhapur.

[Signature]
Principal,
Rajarshi Chh. Shahu College
Kolhapur.