Department of Chemistry R.C.Shahu College, Kolhapur has arranged a guest lecture by Dr.Gajanan Rashinkar, Assistant Professor in Organic Chemistry, Shivaji University, Kolhapur is Motivational Speaker, and the best Guide. Through his lecture & Power-talks, help learners to re-invent themselves; they become more confident, fearless, and successful in their field.

In his motivational speech, he encouraged students to follow their hobbies, choose interdisciplinary field for career, make their hobbies like reading books to improve English & to watch English movies to learn the pronunciation of the words and get familiar with language.

He involved students to do physical activity to relax, as well as told them few tricks or activities to get released from stress or anxiety.

He inspired them by his words of wisdom "Not to give up, take a break, if you must.... but never give up". There were also obstacles along the way. But with each small step they can be overcome. There were frustrations, fears and uncertainties. But with each small step they can be crushed. There was hardship and danger, but with each small step and focus on the desired destination it can be
