RAJARSHI CHHATRAPATI SHAHU COLLEGE, KOLHAPUR
STUDENT COUNCIL
REPORT 2023-24

Student council works for the welfare of the student and to develop leadership qualities and encourage their active participation in curricular, co- curricular and extension activities. For the smooth functioning of curricular and co- curricular activities, the institution has formed its student council for the academic year 2023-24.

Apart from student council, there are various academic and administrative committees which have student representation. They are: IQAC, NSS, NCC, internal complains committee, lead college coordination committee, standing committee, women empowerment cell, earn and learn scheme, cultural committee etc.

College always gives participative role to student in organization of various curricular, co-curricular and extension activities. The student can also express their views and give suggestion in the organization of various activities. The suggestion of the student are taken into consideration while organization various events. In most of the activities, Student are given opportunities in anchoring, Introductory speech, vote of thanks etc. Student representatives act as a facilitator between the student and the college

The Initiative and efforts taken by the college result into development of leadership, confidence building, decision making amongst the students.
